2025/2026 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL
Together We Bring Hope
...and Hope does not disappoint

From the Desk of Father Tim . . .

We fulfilled and exceeded our Catholic Ministry Appeal's responsibility!

I was able to announce this at the beginning of January. When the contributions and pledges that had arrived at the Diocese before Christmas were tallied, it was confirmed that our goal was once again reached before Christmas! This has been a point of pride for our parish throughout the last several years and it is certainly something for which I am proud of you.

As I write this, we are $11,000 over our $155,000 goal, about 7%. I am deeply grateful for your embracing of this important support of the ministries of the Diocese and of St. Rita.

There is one aspect of the CMA for which we are currently underachieving.

While 399 households have currently participated in the CMA, this is about 40 fewer households than last year.

There are many circumstances that may cause a household to not be able to continue their involvement and I certainly understand. However, it is also true that others in our community do have the ability to make up for this by adding their participation.

It is not merely that I want the numbers to look better. Rather, I want more and more households to embrace the importance of the CMA in the life of the Diocese and to participate in its goodness to whatever degree they are able. As we move into February, I will let you know how we are doing in our parish participation and if there are any initiatives that may help.

There is one incentive already in place: for every new household that participates and every household above last year's total number of households, I will add $5 of my own to our CMA. I look forward to paying a big dividend!

Peace,
Fr. Tim

Reflections on Readings for the
The Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Behold, The Lamb Of God, Who Takes Away The Sin Of The World"

This Sunday begins the liturgical period of Ordinary Time. It is the period between the high seasons of Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter.

Our Readings today point to yet another manifestation of Jesus, this time as "the Lamb of God", the sacrificial lamb who will save God's people from the exile of sin.

Our first reading (Isaiah 49:3,5-6) is an excerpt from the second of four "Servant Songs" of Isaiah. Together, these four poems paint a complete picture of a suffering servant, anointed by God, who will deliver Israel and the nations from sin and darkness. The term "nations", which we have been hearing about these past few Sundays, refers to all the people of the world, but more specifically to the Gentile, non-Jewish world. Isaiah's writings make clear that God's plan is to call all people to himself, using Israel as the "light to the nations, that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth".

In our Epistle reading (1 Corinthians 1:1-3), we hear from the opening of St. Paul's letter to the Church in Corinth. Paul identifies himself as one called by God "to be an apostle of Christ Jesus." Paul converted many Gentiles while living in Corinth and gave life and meaning to the term "light to the nations."

Our Gospel reading (John 1:29-34) adds to the multifaceted portrait of Jesus that we have been reading since Christmas. This Sunday's passage describes Jesus as the "Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world". He is not the cute, cuddly little lamb we often see depicted, but the sacrificial lamb of the Passover, that gave its life so that its blood would be a sign on their doorposts to deliver Israel from slavery in Egypt. Jesus, the new Paschal Lamb, will shed His blood on the cross for a new Exodus, the delivery from sin. This Lamb is the very Son of God, in whom the Spirit remains.

We are reminded today that throughout salvation history, God has called upon His children to be beacons of hope and light, leading others to the one true God. We too are called and sent by God. May it be we who become the "light to the nations".

As we continue our Catholic Social Teaching conversations about the Preferential Option for the Poor and Vulnerable, here are some ways to practice that teaching in our everyday lives:

- Donate! Donate! Donate! Time! Talent! Treasure!
- Vote for government leaders who will advocate for the poor.
- Visit, bring a meal, and/or pray for those of poor health.
- Reflect! How do my choices affect the poor?
- Keep a water bottle and snacks in your car to give to those asking for help at a traffic stop - we have blessing bags at church you can take!
- Volunteer to drive the poor/elderly to doctor appointments through Webster's WSPS-Webster Association of Seniors Program.
- Provide support for a single mothers' shelter - ex: Bethany House
- Volunteer your time at one of the Rochester City Schools.
- Take your children shopping when you buy food for the poor. Teachable moment.
- Learn about poverty by reading the Pulitzer Prize winning book "Evict" by Matthew Desmond.
- Check out the Catholic Social Justice Tree in our Narthex at Church for more ideas!

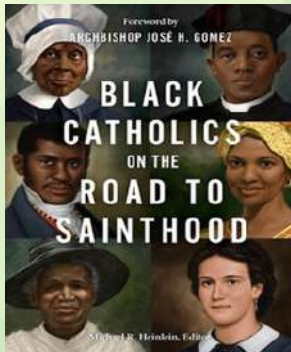

God has anointed us to bring glad tidings to the poor.

A Message from your Parish Health Ministry Team

It's not too late!

Flu illness is surging across the United States following the holiday season. New York State, especially, has been slammed with cases of the flu and record numbers of hospitalizations. Have you wondered if it's too late to get a flu shot? While the ideal time has passed, you're still able to receive and benefit from a flu shot.

Why it's still a good idea:

- Peak season: January and February are often the peak of the flu season, so getting vaccinated now will still cover you during the riskiest months.
- Extended season: Flu viruses circulate well into the spring, even May, so protection is beneficial for months to come.
- Reduced severity: Even if you do get sick, the vaccine lowers the rate of severe illness and hospitalizations.

Other tips and actions to protect you and others from the flu:

- Avoid close contact with those that are sick, coughing, or sneezing.
- If you are sick, stay home from work, school, and crowded places.
- Use a face mask in crowded places.
- Wash hands frequently and use hand sanitizer.
- Get plenty of rest, stay hydrated, and eat a balanced, nutritious diet.

It's better to get vaccinated late in the season than not at all!
